Griffith Buys Spencer Back; National League Batting Averages

Outfielder Sold to Los Angeles Club.

President Rourke, of Omaha Club Here to Talk Business with Old Fox-Gossip.

By WILLIAM PRET.

Little Ben Spencer, purchased from the Petersburg clib of the Virginia League last aummer, who played a few games for the Nationals on the Ffordia avenue bail park only to be sold to the League, bas been recalled by Manager Griffith. or in other words the Old Fox has bought him back. "Spencer has a chance to make good, and I am going to take him to Charlotteaville with me. I want to have another look at him part spring," asid Manager Griffith.

According to Scout Mike Kahoe, who and I am going to take him to Chariotteswills with me. I want to have another look at him next spring," said Manager Griffith.

According to Scout Mike Kahoe, who recommended Spencer, Mike declares that the former Virginia Leaguer is a whole for better than it showed here, as the youngster hid just finished a hard season, and was "all in."

Kahoe believes that Spencer will be a different looking ball player in Charlottesville next spring, and the Old Fox evidently shares the same view.

It will be remembered that Griff was forced to cut his squard just after the drafts were sent in last fail, and as a working agreement had been entered into with the Los Ampeles club, the Old Fox Allrock to this team.

All recalling Spencer the Washington club is only execusing its rights, but such transactions must be on a cash basis with real money changing hands, and must be recorded by the National Commission.

New York, Now. 30.—All this bunk about the Army-Navy game being the roughes footbail content of the season is utterly uneasited for, and unjust to the members of both the West Point and Navy elevens.

The game Saturday was hard fought, that much is tries, but it was not charactised by unnecessary roughness on the part of any of the players.

Not a man was banished from the game either team warned about "piling up," This in itself shows that the content was Annapolis, Nov. M.—Determined to show the Navy players that the good feeling for them on the part of their welcomed them with a rousing yell when the train rolled into Annapolis. Ropes were attached to a corriage and dragged by the midshipmen through the streets
